8. POSITION DESCRIPTION

Performs defensive cyber operations and cyber support functions (DoDIN operations) in garrison and at deployed locations. Surveys, secures, protects, defends, preserves, designs, builds, operates, and extends data, networks, net-centric capabilities, and other designated systems. This Air Force Specialty Code description incorporates the use of DoD Cyber Workforce Framework (DCWF) Codes to tie this specialty description to the framework. The DCWF was developed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) and the DoD to establish a common lexicon and model for all cyber work. The DCWF will universalize training and education between academia, industry, and military. It will also enable talent management by ensuring the right Airmen, for the right assignment, at the right time.

Conducts Defensive Cyber Operations (DCO) and associated support activities to defend DoD and other friendly cyberspace. DCO includes passive and active cyber defense operations to preserve the ability to utilize friendly cyber capabilities and protect data, networks, net-centric capabilities and other designated systems as well as passive defense measures intended to maintain and operate the DODIN and other networks such as configuration control, patching and firewall operations. Support activities includes but not limited to maintenance of cyber weapons systems, functional mission analysis, mission mapping, tool development, stan-eval, mission planning and data analysis.

Plans and organizes cyber support activities. Plans and supervises system installation and evaluates facilities layout and performance standards. Designs and develops organizational structures and determines equipment, training, and supplies required for systems implementation and support. Interacts with customers to promote customer satisfaction. Establishes tactics, techniques, and procedures. Evaluates operational readiness of communications equipment, network devices, sensors, intrusion detection, and related support equipment.

Perform other duties as assigned.
